

TENDAI TAWONEZVI

Founder and designer of NeoBantu, Tawonezvi. In 2013, Tendai started NeoBantu, a women's ready to wear fashion line that mixes vibrant African prints with modern, classic, feminine styles. As a child growing up in Zimbabwe, she would make edits to clothes she found at flea markets to better express her sense of style and creativity. There was so much around her to be inspired by! We're so proud to have such talented designers like Tendai in Dallas! More NeoBantu online at: <https://neobantu.com/>

PARKER PARKER

Parker, owner and designer of Parker Couture. Her true passion is designing powerful statement pieces for women and started out designing Gatsby-inspired gowns for children for 5 years. She then launched her first women's line and runway show in July 2016. Parker became a member of FGI Dallas in February 2017. "I think for so long I was trying to find a tribe that views fashion the way I see it, and when I went to my first get-together with FGI, I was hooked. I wanted to be every bit a part of this amazing organization with all the lovely people," says Parker. We're thrilled to have her as a member too! Check out Parker Parker on Instagram! @designerparker

CHARAE TUCKER

Tucker is a Dallas-based personal stylist and entrepreneur. While working as a stylist at Nordstrom, she saw the need to offer expertise to solve her clients' fashion dilemmas and provide them with stylish solutions. She eventually established her own styling service, Styled by Charae, to broaden her horizons and offer her clients with the best options for their needs. Styled by Charae offers a variety of styling services and continues to grow. Charae has a B.Sc. degree in Fashion Merchandising with a minor in Business Administration from Texas State University. Get in touch with Styled by Charae on her website! <http://www.styledbycharae.com/>

VICTORIA SNEE

Snee is the marketing director at Legacy West. Victoria is an accomplished journalist, author and local Dallas entertainment personality. As an AP Award-winning journalist, she took her experiences from interviewing celebrities and makeup artists and wrote a book: "The Beauty Buzz" about everything from what skincare to use to personal experiences with celebrities like Angelina Jolie and Jennifer Lopez. She got her degree in broadcast journalism at SMU. In 2009, Victoria was chosen as one of D Magazine's 10 Most Beautiful Women. Currently, Victoria is the honorary chair of the Hope's Door Fashion Show + Luncheon on September 15.