

DINAH CAPSHAW

Capshaw's full-service company, Dinah Capshaw Interior Design, specializes in luxury residential and hospitality spaces. This past March, Dinah was nominated for the 2017 FGI Rising Award in Interior Design. Her work has been featured in Luxe Interiors + Design Magazine and Preston Hollow Advocate. She earned her degree in Interior Design from the University of North Texas. Find out more about Dinah Capshaw Interior Design: <https://www.dinahcapshawid.com/>

ANDREA CASE

Case works in Product Development for Ming Wang Knits, a DFW-based company that's been in business for 31 years. For the past 7 years, Andrea has worked closely with Retail Partners on their Ming Wang in-store product assortment. Andrea has been a member of #FGI for 3 years to be part of the large community of fashion industry professionals in Dallas. She has a BBA in Finance and a BS in Merchandising from TCU. Find out more about Ming Wang at their website! <https://mingwangknits.com/>

MATT SWINNEY

Swinney of Austin founded Fashion X Dallas in 2014. The event has become a must-attend sensation in the Dallas fashion community. The event showcases emerging fashion designers, local and beyond. Matt is also known for starting Fashion X Austin and Fashion X Houston. He graduated from Trinity University with a degree in marketing and international business. Matt's worked for companies like Columbia TriStar Television, Andersen Consulting and Moai Technologies before beginning his own ventures. He has also owned two real estate magazines and an Austin lifestyle publication. The next Fashion X Dallas event is on September 30, 2017. Find out more online! <http://dallas.fashionx.co/>

NICOLE POKORNY FORSTER

Assistant Store Manager at Christian Dior in Highland Park Village. Forster's been with Dior for almost a year and previously worked for Saint Laurent. She says, "I joined because my good friend Ken Weber introduced me to FGI and the community events and outreach were fun! It was nice to get to know people that loved fashion, food and fun as much as me!" Nicole has a Bachelor's degree in Business Management and she starts graduate school this Fall at Parson's in NYC for her Master's in Science degree in Strategic Design and Management. Congrats, Nicole!