

INDA MIHALICK

Mihalick is very involved with the retailing degree program and center at the University of North Texas. Since August of 2016, she has served as the Sr. Director the Global Digital Retailing Research Center, as well as a leader for the Center and lecturer. She is responsible for advancing the global digital retailing curriculum, which is highly important in the fashion industry today. Ms. Mihalick has 20 years of experience in retail, including 15 years in e-commerce. JCPenney, Dillard's, Bailey Banks & Biddle and even the Air Force are just a few companies which have benefited from Linda's retailing expertise. She has been a member of FGI of Dallas since 2008 and has a Bachelor of Science from Ohio State University as well as a Master of Science in Merchandising from UNT. Wow, we're always so impressed and inspired by our members!

LEONARDO D'ALMAGRO

D'Almagro, jewelry designer and entrepreneur. This Austin-based designer has a long list of accomplishments. Most recently, he was chosen by HSN to be featured as part of the Project American Dreams program artisan show which is expected to air this summer on HSN. His jewelry accessorized the looks at the Binzarrio Couture show at Paris Fashion Week. Leonardo also launched his brand the prestigious world jewelry show Vicenzaoro. Reality TV celebrities LeeAnne Locken and Tiffany Hendra from "The Real Housewives of Dallas" frequently wear Leonardo's jewelry. Learn more here!
www.LeonardoDalmagro.com

JOHN KOLINOFSKY

Kolinofsky is the president and founder of Callidus Agency, a Dallas-based talent and modeling agency. He's been in the talent management industry for 13 years. Since 2010 Callidus Agency has provided representation to some of the best models, actors and athletes in Dallas and Austin. John is an FGI of Dallas board member. He earned his undergraduate degree in Radio, Television, and Film at The University of North Texas. He also received his MBA at The University of Dallas. Check out the Callidus Agency website to learn more about John and the services the agency offers!
<http://www.callidusagency.com/>

BRITT HARLESS

Current FGI of Dallas board member, jewelry designer and entrepreneur, Britt Harless founded her jewelry company BAHZ in 2011. She's influenced by art, nature, history and culture through her many trips around the world. The company went through a rebranding phase in October of 2015 and now focuses even more on making artistic couture jewelry with exceptional quality. Each piece looks like a work of art! As a longtime, dedicated FGI of Dallas board member, she is co-chair for the incredible FGI Night of Stars event. Britt's work was featured on the Binzarrio Couture runway at New York Fashion Week in September 2016.