

Fashion Event Producer
Senior Fashion Stylist
Fashion Editor

Tamara Klosz Bonar is known throughout the United States as a senior fashion stylist, event producer and fashion editor. Her career began as a runway and print model working with such fashion designers as Calvin Klein, Bill Blass, Gloria Vanderbilt, Diane von Furstenberg, Adolfo and many others.

Styling took center stage when she decided to take control of the other side of the industry. Working as a free lance stylist with Saks Fifth Avenue, under the direction of Helen O'Hagan, SFA's leading force in the fashion industry, she began working with designer and haute couture shows for Oscar de la Renta, Carolina Herrera, Christian Lacroix and Jaqueline de Ribes.

Production and choreography were the next step as she began to produce bridal shows, charity events and mall fashion presentations throughout the Midwest and Washington D.C. area. Moving to San Francisco in 1992 led to newer heights in her career. As a freelance Senior Fashion Stylist for Macy's West she worked closely with Macy's Special Productions and Vice President of Fashion, William Bigler, on numerous fashion productions throughout the west coast.

While residing in the bay area, television, film and fashion were moving hand and hand. With Napa Valley as a backdrop, Tamara produced fashion videos for prominent bridal and formal wear designers. She assisted in production of a documentary montage for the Fisher House Foundation, a non-profit organization that provides temporary accommodations for families of wounded soldiers. Today she continues to support the foundations efforts.

Since 2000 her collaborations with fashion event producer, Lenny Matuszewski have been monumental. Together this team has produced hundreds of special events and fashion shows. Earning praises and acclaim both nationally and internationally.

Tamara Klosz Bonar

A typical month during "the season" consists of; a fashion show featuring 150 graduating senior high school students, a luncheon fashion show charity event for the Salvation Army, managing and styling cancer survivors for Texas Children's Hospital, orchestrating and styling the Latin Women's Initiative fashion show with internationally known designers ... and the month is not yet over.

When Lenny & Tamara are at the helm of an event, the client can rest assured they will receive the highest amount of creativity, integrity, professionalism and passion for their craft. It is truly amazing what happens when two people join forces and really love what they do...anything is possible.
